UTILITIES BILL NOT RADICAL.

STATEMENT TO REASSURE STOCK AND BOND HOLDERS.

Assemblyman Merritt Declares That the Measure Is to Correct Abuses, Not Make Them, and Is Demanded by the Sober and Conservative People of the State.

ALEANY, April 5 .- That the opposition of the representatives of the corporations who have opposed the public utilities commission bill has had the effect of causing | for the $5,000,000 or any part thereof for the worry on the part of stockholders, as well as bondholders, of the railroads is evidenced by the fact that it has been thought necessary to issue a statement to quiet them. Assemblyman Edwin A. Merritt, who assisted in preparing the bill and who introduced it in the lower house, issued to-day the following statement:

"The public utilities bill is not the invention of some one person or set of persons. it has grown. It is demanded by the sober and conservative people of the State. It is based upon the doctrine that the public service corporations are neither the master nor the servant of the State, but the partner of the people in their corporate capacity.

"Gov. Hughes is a courageous and conservative man. He will appoint honest and conservative commissioners. It will be their duty and they will have the power to protect the people's interest in the operation of public service corpora-The things which these corporations perform and the business which they conduct is always one that the people themselves may carry on if they see fit. Their contribution to the partnership is the right to do business; so much of their sovereign power as is necessary to secure the right of emirent domain; the limited liability and other corporate privileges which they give these artificial persons.

The people have not heretofore been represented in the councils of the partnership. They will hereafter of the partnership. They will be represented by the commission

"The corporations are entitled to a reason-

"The property rights which these public service corporations have are subject to the rights of the people. Every share of stock and every bond is held with reference to this essential principle. The learned doctors of the law who have lectured the Legislature on the rights of property have not sufficiently discriminated as to the sort of property with which the Legislature seeks to deal.

"We must cure the evils of overcapitalization, produced by watering stocks and tion, produced by watering stocks and bonds. We must see to it that the people get their share of these successful enterrises by reduction of rates and improvement of service. Corporate managers have run these corporations on the doctrine enunciated by a deceased well known strancier—the public be damned.

"This bill is not revolutionary. It is not tadical. It does not aim to destroy any business corporation. By its enactment every share of stock and bonds will have a more stable value, and it is in the interest not only of the public but the honest in-vestor. Corporation managers who operate their business mainly with reference to the stock quotations in Wall Street should readjust their notions and practices.

This bill will help the business of the State and not hamper it. The commission which Gov. Hughes will appoint will, it is believed, consist of men of character and common sense. There is no reason for alarm; every reason to congratulate him upon the hopeful outlook."

EXEMPT FROM EXAMINATION. State Civil Service Commission Acts on

Applications -Hearings Given.

ALBANY, April 5. State Engineer and Surveyor Skene to-day received the approval of the State Civil Service Commisfor the appointment of Russell R. Stuart of Syracuse as an expert in his department on river canalization and water supply. The State commission waived the rule requiring examination on the ground that Engineer Stuart is a person of high and recognized attainments in this branch of engineering work. Mr. Stuart will receive a salary of $2,700 a year. The commission exempted from competitive examination the position of confidential inspector in the office of the Presidential inspector in the office of the President of the Borough of Queens and the confidential clerk to the faculty of the Normal presented in 1906 was made from the figures College in New York city.

Regarding a question as to the classification as county positions of the places in the City Court of New York city, for which an order to show cause was issued at the last meeting, returnable to-day, the commission decided to take no action owing to doubt as to its jurisdiction.

Hearings were given by the State com-Alfred J. The municipal commissioners favored the change and it was opposed by Mr. Goodwin. No action was taken. Supreme Court Justice Charles L. Guy appeared before the State commission to urge it to make the exemption of an addi-tional confidential attendant to each of the Supreme Court justices in the First Judicial district, for which an application was made to the commission at a former meeting. There are thirty Supreme Court justices in the district and the salaries paid the at-tendants are $1.500 per annum. Mr. Goodwin opposed the exemption and consideration of the matter was again postponed.

Commissioner of Records William

Commissioner of Records William S. Andrews of New York city asked for the exemption of the positions of secretary, superintendent and assistant superintendent in his department. These are new places recently created by the Board of Estimate and Apportionment. The State ommission took the matter under con-

In its decision the court says: The assignment of the firm of O'Hare Dinnean, as counsel in this case, is re-oked, and John D. $300,000 OF CANAL BONDS SOLD. The $4,700,000 Not Sold Were Taken for the State Sinking Fund. ALBANY, April 5 .- State Comptroller Martin H. Glynn to-day sold to outside parties $300,000 of the issue of $5,000,000 of fifty year State canal bonds, which have been advertised during the last several weeks in the newspapers in various parts of the State, in order to procure funds for the continuance of work on the barge canal during the present year. The $4,700,000 bonds not sold were taken by the Comptroller for the State on a bid which he made sinking fund at par and interest.

The sale developed that if the bill of Senator Hill of Buffalo, which was introduced some weeks ago to remit to financial institutions the 1 per cent. State tax for the amount of money they should put into State bonds, had been on the statute books State bonds, had been on the statute books the bonds would have been in lively demand from the big bond houses in New York, to the great benefit of the finances of the State. This was shown by the presentation to Comptroller Glynn by A. L. Judson of this city of a bid for the $5,00,000 or any part thereof of the bonds to be sold at 101.6325. provided the Hill bill became a law. This bid was accompanied by a check for $100,000 to guarantee it.

Comptroller Glynn, of course, was not authorized under the law to give this bid consideration. He said that he understood that the proposal came from a New York bond house through Capt. Judson, and thought it indicated that there would have been bids from all of the bond houses if the bonds offered had been a security to

The awards of the $300,000 bonds which went to outside parties on their bids of par and interest were made as follows: Mer-chants' National Bank of New York, $100,000; chants' National Bank of New York, $100,000; Columbia National Bank of Buffalo, $100,000; First National Bank of Oswego, $35,000; First National Bank of Tonawanda, and Central National Bank of Buffalo, each $25,000; Citizens' Trust Company of Brooklyn, $10,000; Mrs. E. J. Furst, of Lafargeville, Jefferson county, $2,000; Montauk Bank of New York, Spencer Trask & Co. ard the Albany County Bank, each $1,000. The bid put in by A. L. Judson was the largest individual bid ever made for State caugh bonds. The only response made to canal bonds. The only response made to Comptroller Clynn's invitation to small investors to come in and make the bond issue a popular subscription came in the

WESTERN PACIFIC RUSHES WORK. 5,000 Laborers Now and Expects

Soon to Get 3,000 More. The scarcity of labor in the West, which has retarded construction work on the Western Pacific, has been greatly relieved in the last two weeks. While only a few weeks ago the management had but 3,000 men at work and was making every effort to secure 5,000 more, it now has 5,000 men busy and is assured of the services of a large part of the 3,000 more it needs.

Tracks have been laid from Salt Lake City to a point 105 miles west and from that point the laying of tracks will be re-sumed next week. A large enough force will be put on the work to lay a mile of track daily and a little later in the season, so President E. T. Jeffrey said yesterday, the work will be pushed to double that performance. It is the purpose of the build-ers to keep the construction of the road apace with the work on the tunnels so that the line can be ready for business immediately on the completion of the tunnels. The improvement in the labor situation vinces the management of its ability to do this.
Mr. Jeffrey confirmed the report that

CIRCUS SURPLUS CUT INTO

To Pay Dividends for Three Years -Mistake of $100,000 in Bookkeeping.

The directors of the Barnum and Bailey Circus Company, which is an English corporation, have issued a circular in which the company, Haskins and Sells, stating that for the three years up to October 28, 1905, dividends of 10, 6 and 71/2 per cent. were paid to a large extent out of the sur-rlus profits of previous years. Actual receipts in that period, the certificate says, were £43,220, whereas dividends to the amount of £62,667 were paid. This caused a deficit of £19,446, to which should be added the £50,000 charged off to capital reserve.

supplied by the former auditors. The new management turned the accounts over to the present auditors, who showed that in addition to the deficit in the three years a mistake in the report for 1900 put the profits for that year at £21,294 instead of £1.884. In addition to that the profits for 1905 are reduced to £33,351.

2 CENT FARE FOR PENNSYLVANIA. mission to President W. F. Baker and Governor Signs Bill-Another Law to Exempt Short Roads.

HARRISHURG Pa April 5 - Gov. Stuart this morning signed the 2 cent fare bill. After September next the maximum charge for railroad fares in Pennsylvania will be 2 cents a mile and there will be no "extra" fare trains unless the railroad companies are permitted to construe the law in such a way as to make the extra fare apply to the ivilege of riding in parlor or sleeping cars. Representative Dunsmore, the author of the 2 cent fare bill, savs he believes that unless the McCullough bill, reducing the fares on Pullman cars, becomes a law, the railroads will be allowed to charge extra The Legislature will probably pass the bill exempting railroads under fifty miles in length from the 2 cent restriction.

Boston Coppers Show Advances.

Boston, April 5.-There was a lively movement of copper shares here to-day, the prices advancing easily and closing on an average of 2 to 3 points higher than at the opening. Certain specialties wabbled. Trinity fell from 23 to 20%, rallying to 21%, and Balakla's lost from 12 to 10%, later 114. and Balakia'a lost from 12 to 10%, later 114... Calumet and Arizona to 165, Bingham to 20, Osceola to 147, Utah to 63, Isle Royale to 211/2, Boston Consolidated to and Greene Cananea sold at 161 American Zinc lost to 37.
